

Client Testimonials for Clean Slate Counselling

" Living abroad meant finding an English speaking counsellor I could talk with was near impossible which is why I turned to researching online therapy options. Deborah is a professional, compassionate and down to earth counsellor who really helped me see what I needed to do in order to create some more calm in my life. She was also always available over email and our skype sessions always went off without a hitch. I was also really impressed with the research she did in order to know more about my situation. I highly recommend her to anyone seeking support"
